Public awareness campaigns that engage and educate local communities on plastic waste can spur community action and affect consumer choices.

TARGET USERS: Individuals, Businesses, Industry, Government

KEY CONSIDERATIONS: The aim is to increase public understanding and shape community perceptions on the dangers of plastic pollution and available solutions, thereby empowering more people and organizations to take action.

THE PROBLEM:

Everyday, plastic waste negatively impacts the ecosystem, habitats, human health and sustainable development across the world. Despite the vast scale of the problem, the general public and other important stakeholders have not been adequately engaged and educated on how they can become part of the solution.

THE SOLUTION:

Broad public awareness can help to change the way that plastic is viewed, used and managed as waste. Education and engagement can be part of a city's strategic action plan, and can include consumer awareness campaigns, business awareness campaigns, documentary films, school initiatives and cleanup activities, among others.

The aim is to increase public understanding and shape community perceptions on the dangers of plastic pollution and available solutions, thereby empowering more people and organizations to take action. Community actions can include changes in individual attitudes and purchasing habits, increased sorting and recycling behavior, responsible business processes and practices, among others.

Venue	JKKMCT- In Front of Main Building

Dr. Radhakrishnan became President of India in 1962. He was approached by some of his friends and students who requested him to allow them to celebrate his birthday on 5 September. Dr. S. Radhakrishnan responded, "Instead of observing my birthday discretely, it would be my pompous privilege if 5th September is scrutinised as Teachers' Day". Such a request coming from the President of India clearly showcased Dr. S. Radhakrishnan's affection and dedication for teachers. From then onwards, India celebrates Teachers' Day on 5th September.

On Teachers Day, students hold different activities to entertain teachers at schools and colleges. These activities include singing competition, dance competition, recitation of poems, mimicry of teachers, lots of games children play with teachers, plan a picnic, offer gifts and at last, they thank teachers by expressing their gratitude.

Teachers Day is a great occasion for celebrating and enjoying the relationship between teachers and students.

TEACHER

A teacher, also called a schoolteacher or formally an educator, is a person who helps students to acquire knowledge, competence, or virtue, via the practice of teaching.

Informally the role of teacher may be taken on by anyone (e.g. when showing a colleague how to perform a specific task). In some countries, teaching young people of school age may be carried out in an informal setting, such as within the family (homeschooling), rather than in a formal setting such as a school or college. Some other professions may involve a significant amount of teaching (e.g. youth worker, pastor).

In most countries, formal teaching of students is usually carried out by paid professional teachers. This article focuses on those who are employed, as their main role, to teach others in a formal education context, such as at a school or other place of initial formal education or training.

TEACHER'S DUTIES

A teacher's role may vary among cultures.

Teachers may provide instructions in literacy and numeracy, craftsmanship or vocational training, the arts, religion, civics, community roles, or life skills.

Formal teaching tasks include preparing lessons according to agreed curricula, giving lessons, and assessing pupil progress.

A teacher's professional duties may extend beyond formal teaching. Outside of the classroom teachers may accompany students on field trips, supervisors for extracurricular activities. They also have the legal duty to protect students from harm, such as that which may result from bullying, racism or abuse, etc., In some education systems, teachers may be responsible for student discipline.

This category includes all prizes and awards relating to science, engineering, technology, and mathematics.

National Engineers' Day in India is celebrated every year on September 15 to commemorate the birth anniversary of Sir Mokshagundam Visvesvaraya, a renowned Indian engineer and statesman. In the field of engineering, Sir Visvesvaraya was a pioneer who significantly influenced the growth of India's infrastructure.

Engineers' Day, celebrated annually on September 15th in India, is a day of reverence for the contributions and achievements of engineers across various fields of science and technology. This special day coincides with the birth anniversary of Mokshagundam Visvesvaraya, a prominent figure in India's engineering history. In this article, we delve into the significance of Engineers' Day, the legacy of M Visvesvaraya, and the theme for this year's celebration.

Visionary engineer M Visvesvaraya

Mokshagundam Visvesvaraya, fondly known as M Visvesvaraya or Sir MV, was born on September 15, 1861, in Muddenahalli, Karnataka. He earned recognition as a distinguished civil engineer, statesman, scholar, and visionary who played an instrumental role in shaping India's infrastructure, irrigation, and industrial landscape. One of his noteworthy achievement ..

Beyond engineering, Visvesvaraya's leadership extended to serving as the Diwan of Mysore from 1912 to 1918, during which he spearheaded numerous reforms in education, agriculture, commerce, and public works. His achievements also included the establishment of organizations such as the Government Engineering College in Bangalore (now known as University Visvesvaraya College of Engineering), the Karnataka Bank, the Century Club, and the Mysore Chamber of Commerce. For his amazing achievements, he was awarded the Bharat Ratna, India's highest civilian honor, in 1955. His amazing life ended in 1962, when he was 101 years old.

Venue	ONLINE COMPETITION NEW DELHI

The National Mathematics Day is observed on December 22 each year to commemorate the birth anniversary of the great Indian mathematician Srinivasa Ramanujan

The 2012 Indian stamp featured Srinivasa Ramanujan. The Indian government declared 22 December to be celebrated as National Mathematics Day every year to mark the birth anniversary of the Indian mathematician Srinivasa Ramanujan. It was introduced by Prime Minister Manmohan Singh on 26 December 2011 at Madras University, to mark the 125th birth anniversary of the Indian mathematician Srinivasa Ramanujan. On this occasion Prime minister Manmohan Singh also announced that 2012 would be celebrated as the National Mathematics Year.

Since then, India's National Mathematics Day is celebrated on 22 December every year with numerous educational events held at schools and universities throughout the country. In 2017, the day's significance was enhanced by the opening of the Ramanujan Math Park in Kuppam, in Chittoor, Andhra Pradesh. National Mathematics Day is celebrated in all schools and universities throughout the country.

9.INTERNATIONAL MEN'S DAY CELEBRATION

Event Organized by	JKKMCT
Name of Event Organized	International men's day celebration
Date of the Event	19.11.2022
Venue	JKKMCT CANTEEN

On November 19, International Men's Day celebrates worldwide the positive value men bring to the world, their families and communities. We highlight positive role models and raise awareness of men's well-being. Our theme for 2022 is "Positive Male Role Models".

This day is celebrated to know the importance of men in the progress and development of families, communities, and civilizations. Here's all you need to know about International Men's Day.

International Men's Day has six primary objectives. They are as follows:

1. To promote positive male role models; not just movie stars and sports men but everyday, working-class men who are living decent, honest lives.
2. To celebrate men's positive contributions to society, community, family, marriage, child care, and the environment.
3. To focus on men's health and wellbeing: social, emotional, physical, and spiritual.
4. To highlight discrimination against men in areas of social services, social attitudes and expectations, and law.
5. To improve gender relations and promote gender equality.
6. To create a safer, better world, where people can be safe and grow to reach their full potential.

International Men's Day (IMD) is a global awareness day for many issues that men face, including parental alienation, abuse, homelessness, suicide, and violence, celebrated annually on November 19. The objectives of celebrating an International Men's Day are set out in 'All the Six Pillars of International Men's Day'. It is also an occasion to celebrate boys' and men's lives, achievements and contributions, in particular for their contributions to nation, union, society, community, family, marriage, and childcare

Inaugurated on 7 February 1992 by Thomas Oaster, the project of International Men's Day was conceived one year earlier, on 8 February 1991. The project was re-initialised in 1999 in Trinidad and Tobago. The longest running celebration of International Men's Day is Malta, where events have occurred since 7 February 1994. As Malta was the only country that observed the February date of celebrating Men and their contribution to the society, the Maltese AMR Committee voted in 2009 to shift the date for IMD to 19 November.

Jerome Teelucksingh, who revived the event, chose 19 November to honour his father's birthday and also to celebrate how on that date in 1989 Trinidad and Tobago's football team had united the country with their endeavours to qualify for the World Cup. Teelucksingh has promoted International Men's Day as not just a gendered day but a day where all issues affecting men and boys can be addressed. He has said of IMD and its grass roots activists, "They are striving for gender equality and patiently attempt to remove the negative images and the stigma associated with men in our society".

Unlike International Women's Day, (8 March) International Men's Day is not officially recognised by the United Nations.
