Our research director began his speech, "It is with hopes and aspirations, dreams and ambitions that you are on this Campus this morning. You are raring to go. Everything is new for you—new classrooms, new teachers, new friends and even new technology. But this Institution towers tall and has stood here like a spreading tree of knowledge for decades. So you have come to a place which has a rich tradition.

But we have not fossilized. We have embraced change every step of the way. As you look around you can see how modern the facilities here are. So welcome dear students to a time of zestful living and wonderful learning

Our secretary madam inspired the students with her speech that, "Life on campus is colorful. There are many activities you can be part of. And I do wish that each one of you will find your part in some of them. We do not want you to be just gathering information from here; but we want you to learn character, discipline, compassion, and above all understand the meaning of life.

But activities should not become distractions. You should never major on minor things. Always keep things in perspective. What is important should never be marginalized. Therefore keep your goals in front of you always. Each day measure the

Apart from educational betterment, our college also focuses on the extra-curricular activities and organizes annual sports competition every year in the month of December after the completion of semester exams. We encourage all our students to participate in most of the sports because we understand that physical activities not only unwind one's mind, but also help in keeping people fit. Some of our students also represent the college at the national level competitions

Students of today are the future of our college and nation. He said that I strongly believe that your sincerity and honesty can always help you in making a good and responsible human being out of yourself. Of course, teachers and all other college staffs will always remain as the navigators to guide you. The duty of the teachers is not only to impart education, but also to inculcate discipline and qualities in the students. You should feel protected and shielded under the guidance of your teachers and hence, should honor their presence.

I, on behalf of the entire college would like to take a commitment from all our existing students and the new comers to maintain an amiable relationship with one another, respect your seniors, teachers and all other staff members and make your parents and us proud for having you here.

Similarly, the traditional snake boat race is also a major attraction during the festival. We refer to it as Vallamkali. There are 100 men on each boat who do the rowing. The race occurs at the River Pampa. Other popular races include Nehru Trophy Boat Race and the Uthrottathi Boat Race. Another important aspect of this festival is the Onam Sadhya. It is basically a feast containing all types of vegetarian dishes. It is quite lavish and is served on the last day of the festival. A huge variety of dishes are prepared and people serve them on banana leaves. Further, there is Onam Pookolam that is basically flower carpets. People make the flower decorations in front of their houses for welcoming King Mahabali.

celebrates the birthday of the Hindu deity Lord Ganesha who is believed to be the remover of obstacles of life.

People welcome Lord Ganesha into their homes in the form of idols. His presence signifies the onset of happiness, good luck and prosperity. During the eleven days of Ganesh Chaturthi, a special sweet called modak is prepared as a treat for devotees and idols of Lord Ganesha. At the end of the eleven-day festival, people immerse their statues of Lord Ganesha into the nearest

Be it any cultural event Christmas, Saraswati Puja or Onam, JKKMCT has been celebrating different festivals with the same fervor. Believers as well as non-believers, all came together under one roof to celebrate these festivals. Saraswati Puja is just another attempt by the students and staff to preserve the Indian culture and to impart a sense of respect towards long-established traditions. These celebrations ensure that students find a home away from home. Both the faculty and students joined hands together, with great zeal to make the event a memorable one also evoking the blessing of the goddess of knowledge to have a successful academic and carrier growth

A Christmas tree is an artificial pine tree that is decorated with lights, artificial stars, flowers, toys, and bells all over it. It looks beautiful when the decoration is complete. Churches are decorated with lights during Christmas and people hang star lanterns outdoors to mark the onset of the festive season. All members of the family sit and pray together in praise of Jesus Christ.

Kids are especially enthusiastic about Christmas as they expect Santa Claus to visit them and bring gifts to their homes on the night of Christmas Eve and the early hours of Christmas day. Presents are placed under the Christmas tree which is wrapped in gift boxes and opened on the day of Christmas.

Kids sing Christmas carols like, “Jingle Bell, Jingle Bell, Jingle all the way” and perform various skits celebrating the auspicious day. Christmas is a festival which is cherished by people from all faiths and religions. It reminds us of the importance of sharing, exchanging gifts, and living in peace and harmony with our family and

Venue	JKKMCT- In Front of Main Building

PONGAL CELEBRATION

Pongal is the harvest festival of Tamil Nadu, celebrated on the first day of 'Thai' (Tamil month). A festival to thank God for all his goodness and mercies and to look forward to a prosperous year. It usually falls on the 14th or 15th of January in the English calendar. JKKMCT celebrated Pongal on the 12th of January for the year 2024. Students were asked to report by 8:15 am. for the first hour of class. The students arrived in traditional dhotis and sarees to mark the occasion. The celebration started around 9:30 am. The entrance of the staff room was decorated with colorful Rangoli.

The college gathered to celebrate Pongal with their respective departments with the supervision of the staff members of the college. It was an ambience filled revelry, music, dance and the joyful faces reverberated with big smiles. Each department was allocated a spot for their celebration inside the college campus. Pongal was prepared by the all lady faculty

As the milk came up to the brim of the pot, boiled water and milk overflowed and the crowd cooed 'Pongalo Pongal' to express oneness. The soaked rice and dhal was poured into the boiling milk and water.

Meanwhile there were other activities conducted. The management had organized an interdepartmental rangoli competition for the students to celebrate the traditional art forms. There was also a modern dj to balance the tradition. Sweet Pongal and sugarcanes were distributed to all the students. The bottle filling game" were conducted. The day came to an end with the announcement of the prize winners for the best Pongal and Rangoli done by the departments. Everybody left home with memories as it was yet another joyous celebration JKMMCT had to offer.

As the flame flickers to life, it casts a warm glow, symbolizing hope, prosperity, and spiritual awakening. Family members often join in chanting prayers or singing hymns, fostering a sense of unity and reverence. The gentle glow of the Kuthuvilaku serves as a beacon of positivity and harmony, illuminating not just the physical space but also the hearts and minds of those present. It is a timeless tradition that celebrates the sacred bond of family, the richness of culture, and the eternal light of spirituality.

Prayer is the raising of one's mind and heart to God or the requesting of good things from God. It is better in prayer to have a heart without words than words without heart. Whether we realize it or not, prayer is the encounter of God's thirst with ours. We started our function with prayer song.

Prayer is the spiritual communication of worship where we talk to god& also listen to them. Whether we realize it or not, prayer is the encounter of God's thirst with ours. The purposes of prayers are adoration, thanksgiving, repentance, and petition. It also a way of relating to god, to ourselves, to those around us. It serves as a bridge between the earthly and the divine, offering comfort, guidance, and spiritual nourishment to those who engage in it.

REPORT OF THE EVENT

Event Organized by	JKKMCT- COLLEGE TO CORPORATE CELL
Name of Event	HOLI CELEBRATION
Date of the Event	25.03.2024
Venue	JKKMCT - CAMPUS

Holi is the unique and colourful celebration of many myths, legends and deities associated with it. It has many interesting facts and figures which is important for the people to know. The festival of colours is very significant for our lives and body in various other ways than providing fun and the joy. Keeping this in mind, JKKMCT celebrated this event with students, staff and other team members. It incorporated so much fun on the college campus.

A day full of colours! A day full of excitement! A day full of wishes! Yes, it's Holi! A day to rejoice love! Happy Holi!"

Holi the festival of colours, is one of the most important festivals of India and is celebrated with great pomp and fervor. A day before Holi, Holika is burnt to remove negativity and bring the colours of positivity into our lives. The dominant idea behind holi is to spread the message of harmony.

celebrate this festival, a Special Assembly was conducted by the students of class 1, wherein a beautiful skit was performed deciphering the importance of Holi and the safety measures required while playing Holi. A mesmerizing dance performance by the tiny tots also enthralled the audience.

9. PARIYUR AMMAN TEMPLE FESTIVAL

REPORT OF THE EVENT

Name of Event	Pariyur Amman Temple
Date of the Event	11.01.2024
Venue	Gobichettipalayam

The history of the temple dates centuries back. The exact date of establishment is unknown and the current temple was built in the mid-1950s. The place was previously known as Azhagapuri or Parapuri and the name Pariyur came from 'Pari' 'oor' meaning, 'place ruled by Pari'. Vēl Pāri was a great king who is considered in Tamil literature as one of the Kadai ēzhu vallal (literally meaning, the last of the seven great patrons). Arulmigu Kondathu Kaliyamman is a powerful Goddess who was the deity responsible for the prosperity of the country ruled by Pari.

Schedule and pooja:

The temple is open from 6 am to 1 pm and from 4 pm to 8 pm. Abisegam and Puja is performed thrice daily on a normal day at 5.00 am, 11.00 am and at 5.00 pm. Archanai is performed all the time and Prasadham can be got from a stall dedicated to it

Special practices

To decide on things, people around the area ask the decision of the Goddess through a special practice known as "Vaaku Kettal" (வாக்கு ககட்டல்). They keep flowers on both the sides of the Goddess Kaliyamman and the decision depends upon the flower which falls from the statue. The Goddess is specially dressed in sandal paste or turmeric paste during festivities

GURUNATHASAMY TEMPLE CELEBRATION

REPORT OF THE EVENT

Name of Event Organized	Gurunathasamy Temple
Date of the Event	07.08.2024
Venue	Anthiyur

Gurunathaswamy Temple is one of the oldest temples in the state of Tamil Nadu.

HISTORY

The exact history of the temple is still unknown. However, it is believed that long back there were some pilgrims who were carrying three holy stones from some unknown area. After a few days they were enlightened with the knowledge of life and then they decided to throw the stones away in the holy water. The exact reason behind throwing the stones is unknown. However, the stones reached a particular spot Anthiyur and stayed there. The three stones eventually formed the three idols namely Lord Kamatchi, Gurunathaswamy and Lord Perumal. The spot where the stones lie is the exact location of Anthiyur Gurunathaswamy Temple.

IMPORTANCE/SIGNIFICANCE

The temple is of utmost importance to the people residing in the state of Tamil Nadu. They worship Gurunathaswamy not just as a God but also as a Guru showing them the light of life path. Meditations and rituals are regularly performed to seek the blessing of the Guru.
