The objectives of Faculty Welfare Club typically include:

- Promoting faculty well-being: Supporting the physical, mental, and emotional health of faculty members.
- Providing support: Offering assistance with personal and professional challenges, such as mentoring, counseling, and resources.
- Encouraging professional development: Supporting faculty growth through workshops, training, and conference opportunities.
- Recognizing achievements: Celebrating faculty accomplishments, awards, and milestones.
- Fostering collaboration: Facilitating interdisciplinary connections and partnerships.
- Enhancing work-life balance: Promoting flexible work arrangements, employee benefits, and family support.
- Addressing concerns: Providing a platform for faculty to voice concerns, suggestions, and feedback.
- Building morale: Organizing social events, celebrations, and team-building activities to boost faculty morale.
- Advocating for faculty interests: Representing faculty needs and interests to the administration and beyond.

By achieving these objectives, the Faculty Welfare Club aims to create a supportive, inclusive, and empowering environment for faculty members to thrive.
